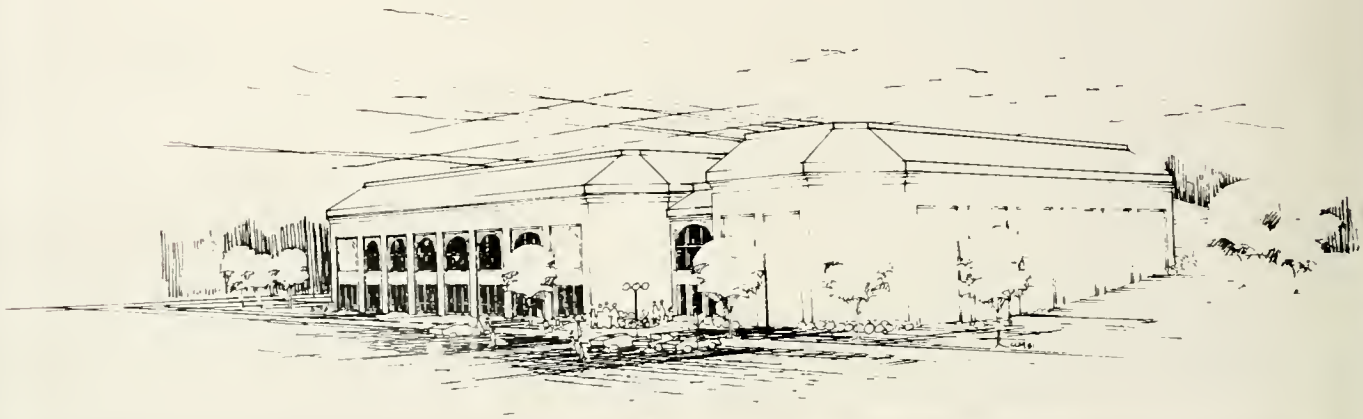
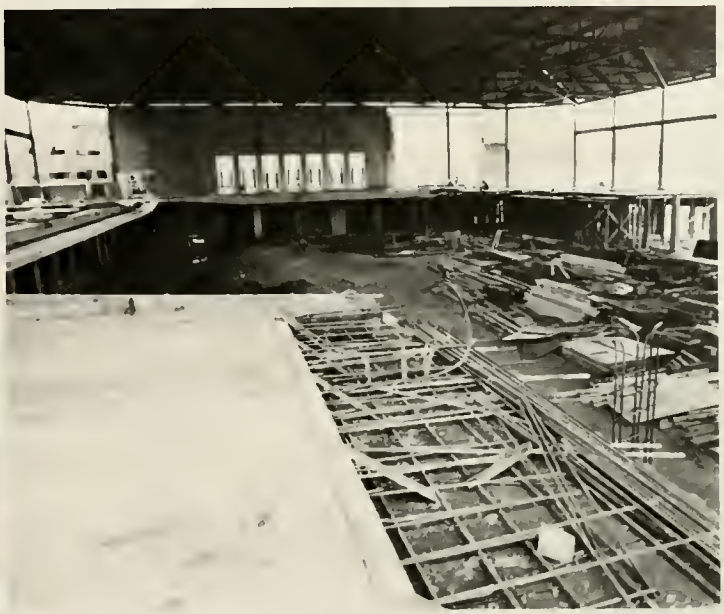
. . . The Dream

. . . A place where our musicians have a stage on which to perform
. . . A place where our Health and Physical Education majors have laboratory and activity areas
. . . A place where our basketball team has an arena appropriate for it's skills
. . . A place where our students have recreation areas



On the weekend of October 19, 1979 groundbreaking ceremonies were held after the homecoming parade ended at the site of the Convocation Center. Several hundred persons observed as Hobart C. Smith, Joe F. Hayes, and Craven E. Williams broke ground for the construction to begin on the $3.8 million structure. Hundreds of people have been responsible for the attainment of the funds to construct the center. The 64,000 square feet facility features The Paul B. Porter Basketball Arena with seating capacity of 4,500, The Kathleen Dover Fine Arts Theater with seating for 600, classrooms for the Physical Education Department, faculty offices, a fine arts classroom, Bulldog Clubroom and press workshop, conference room, handball courts, weight room, human performance laboratory, and an audio visual room.

The Lutz-Yelton Convocation Center



A 65,000 square foot multi-purpose structure. The Lutz-Yelton Convocation Center is captured in its growth. From the bare frame of steel in the fall of 1980 to the almost finished product seen here, the building is scheduled for completement in the Spring or Summer of 1982.

. . . Once a Dream

. . . Now, a Reality

1981 Graduation

Hundreds of people gathered to watch as 240 baccalaureate and associate degrees were conferred Saturday May 16 upon Gardner-Webb students.

The ceremonies, which began Friday afternoon with the pinning of 17 nursing students, was climaxed Saturday morning with the conferring of 142 Bachelor of Science, 75 Bachelor of Arts and 22 Associate in Arts degrees, awarding of the Huggins and Curtis Citizenship medals and two senior scholastic awards, and the presentation of a meaningful message from the President of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dr. William G. Tanner.

After the traditional and stately Academic Processional and call to worship, Dr. Lloyd C. Bost, chairman of the Board of Trustees at the college gave an invocation and the Choral Ensemble presented selections from Elijah.

Dr. William G. Tanner used the topic "Real Verses Illusory" for his address to the college graduates.

"One of the most important things for young people today, is not necessarily to be successful, or to be talented, or to be educated but more importantly is the ability to distinguish between what is real in life as opposed to those things that are illusionary, that appear to be important but in reality have very little value," said Tanner.

He continued that "A college like Gardner-Webb is an attempt to help society realize an ideal way of life. This is a place to think and assay great thoughts, a refuse for people and the intellect. It is a citadel for those who believe in the imperative of the intellectual pursuit of truth. It stands, like a great Gothic Cathedral, for the ideals of civilization."

Head Coach TOM MOORE begins his third year at the helm of the Bulldog football program. Before being appointed Gardner-Webb's fourth head football coach in 1979, Moore had prepared himself well with a dozen years of experience as an assistant coach working on both the offensive and defensive side of the ball.

A product of Dayton, Ohio, Moore moved to Beaver Falls, PA., where he played in the same backfield with Joe Namath. A standout prepster at Beaver Falls, Moore earned a scholorship at The Citadel. As a runningback and wide receiver, Moore started all four years. He earned All-Conference honors in 1966 as well as being named team captain.

From his days as a high school player on a team that won the state champinship for the first time, to Clemson University, Moore has been associated with successful rebuilding programs. Now in phase III of what was thought to be at least a four or five year effort with "The Dogs," it is readily apparent that Moore is ahead of schedule in rebuilding the successful efforts of Gardner-Webb Football.

'DOGS!

Above, the Bulldogs rejoice over another good play. It's a Bulldog recover. Then Jamie Pope sweeps to the outside to gain yardage. Pictured left is # 12, Tim Davis kicking that famous 53 yard field goal against Wofford on November 21. There's a familiar scene—Coach Moore has a friendly chat with an official.

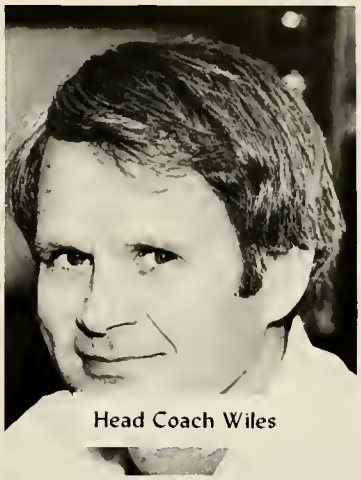
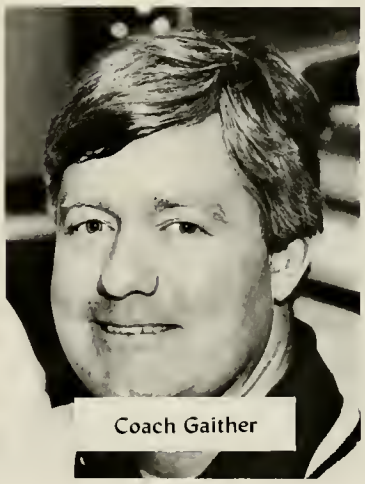
Dean Johnson (12) gives an assist to Rick Kinney (32) against UNC-Ashville.



Head Coach Wiles



Coach Gaither

Jim Wiles

This year marks the fourth year for Head Coach Jim Wiles as Gardner-Webb's leader in victory. Wiles knows his game and his personnel and has made possible with this combination many successful seasons. The 1981-1982 season has been an exceptional one considering the many unfortunate injuries the team has experienced. Wiles is to be commended for an excellent season record.

As of last year, Wiles overall college coaching record was 320-94. This incredible 78 percent winning margin makes him the winningest college coach in North Carolina and one of the tops in the country.

Wiles is a 1963 graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne College, where he was an All-Conference player who holds the record for most consecutive free throws (33). He earned his Masters Degree from Western Carolina University.

He and his wife, Barbara have a daughter, Jill who is a recent G-W graduate, now teaching English in Richmond, Virginia. The Wiles reside in Shelby, NC.

Tommy Gaither

Tommy Gaither enters his fourth year as Associate Basketball Coach. Much of the 'Dogs great success over the past three seasons can be credited to Coach Gaither's hard work behind-the-scenes and on the practice floor. Gaither has also recruited well for Gardner-Webb and molded the schedule into one of the toughest in the country. He is also Associate Director of the highly successful Bulldog Basketball Summer Camps. Voted Coach-of-the-Year several times, Gaither recieved his B.S. and Masters degrees from Clemson University. He and his wife, Anne have two daughters, Amanda and Jennifer.

Go Dogs

The Students of Gardner-Webb College Dedicate the 1982 WEB to

Mr. Charles I. Dover

Charles I. Dover is a native of Shelby, N.C. He is the son of Ella Toms Dover and John Randolph Dover. He attended Shelby Schools, Massey Business College, Fisburne Military Academy, and graduated from North Carolina State University.

When he was eleven years old, Mr. Dover worked as a day laborer during the summer, learning the business of his father from the ground up, and earning 36 cents a day on an eleven hour shift.

Through the years, the Dover Family has fulfilled a seldom publicized philosophy of helping schools, churches, students, individuals, civic clubs and others. Behind this philosophy stands Charles I. Dover, a man who quietly goes about what he feels in his heart is in the best interest of his community. He is a member of the First Baptist Church of Shelby and has served as a Sunday School teacher and as Sunday School Superintendent and Deacon. His service club record is outstanding including past and present memberships in the Lions Club, and Rotary Club.

Charles Dover is one of Gardner-Webb's most dedicated advocates. Interestingly, Gardner-Webb College and the Dover Textile Group have lived parallel lives. Both were opened in 1907. Dover has grown into a textile empire with eight plants. Gardner-Webb has grown from a high school to a senior college offering associate, bachelor, and masters degrees. The school has more than 1750 resident and commuting students operating in twelve locations (including the Dover Executive Offices).

This has only been done through the counsel, encouragement, and assistance of such men as Charles I. Dover. Both he and his brother John R. Dover have served the college as Trustees and as Chairman of the Board.

The Charles I. Dover Campus Center at the College was dedicated in September, 1966, in honor of this long-time friend and benefactor of the college.

He has three children—Mrs. Anne Nolan Dover Bailey (married to Hoyt Q. Bailey), Mrs. Elizabeth Kathleen Dover Hamrick (married to Harvey Hamrick), and Mrs. Dorothy Esther Dover Dykes. He also has several grandchildren. He was married to the late Kathleen Nolan Dover. The Kathleen Nolan Dover Theater of the Lutz-Yelton Convocation Center is named in honor of Mrs. Dover.

Rolling with the Eighties

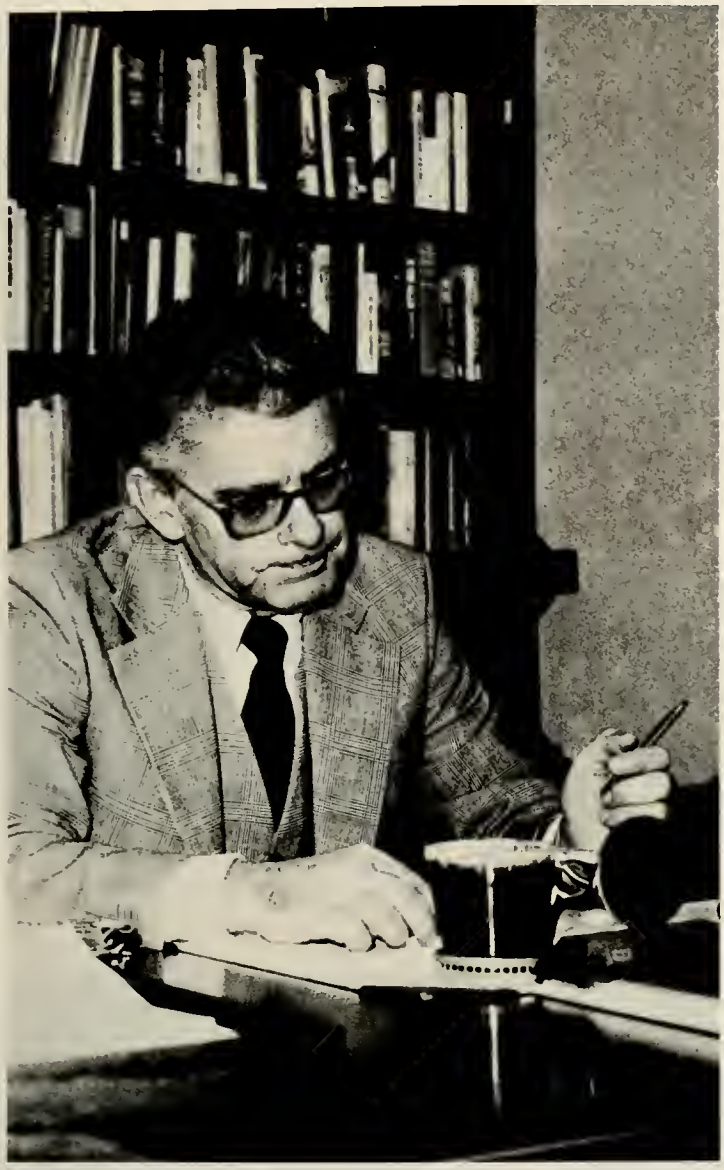
President Craven E. Williams

In tune with the theme of the 1982 WEB, "Building a Rainbow," one must begin and maintain this life-long task and pleasure by being optimistic; gazing out the window of life setting goals for the future and then working to accomplish these goals.

It is evident that Dr. Williams has set high goals for his own life and for the life of Gardner-Webb College. After completing his undergraduate work at Wake Forest University, he completed his graduate work at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and Union Theological Seminary.

After becoming the ninth president of the College in August 1976, Dr. Williams immediately launched the Bold Dimensions in Higher Education Program. This has resulted in an enrollment growth of 13%, library growth of 102%, new campus construction exceeding $4 million, and the development of new programs such as the Degree Program for the Deaf, the Evening College, and the Graduate Program.

Dr. Williams is married to the former Beth Parker and they have two children, a son, Jay and a daughter, Lee.



Dr. Drayer assumes new role in his fresh environment.

Rolling with the Eighties

Vice-President for Academic Affairs John R. Drayer

Dr. John R. Drayer works eagerly as the newly elected Vice-President for Academic Affairs and also as Associate Professor of Religion. Drayer, elected last Spring as Vice-Chairman of the Gardner-Webb College Faculty was recently named to the post of "Acting Dean." As a search continued for candidates to fill the position, Drayer proved to be preferred for the office and was named Vice-President and Academic Dean of Gardner-Webb College. The announcement was made by President Craven E. Williams during a student convocation on March 16, 1982. Drayer assumed his new position at 10:30 that morning.

Dr. Drayer has been a member of the faculty since 1973. He previously has served as an Instructor in Field Education at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky. In addition, he has served Pastorates in Tennessee, Indiana, and Florida, as well as serving interim pastorates. He is also very actively involved in civic affairs around his community.

As Vice-President for Academic Affairs, Drayer is responsible for the development of educational policies, the administration of the academic program, the coordination and implementation of the curriculum and instructional program. Drayer holds the B.A. degree from Belmont College, Nashville Tennessee, the B.D., Th.M., and Ph.D. degree from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

He and his wife, Evelyn are parents of two children, Deborah, a graduate of Gardner-Webb and Dan, a student at Shelby Jr. High School.

What in the world are all of these lines at the top and bottom of every page in the yearbook? Symbolically they represent the color separations in one of God's most beautiful gifts—the rainbow. On the opening pages its more evident than on the black and white, but both carry out the graphic theme of the 1982 WEB. This theme was inspired by a week-long retreat theme for youth last summer at Fort Caswell (The North Carolina Baptist Assembly). "Building a Rainbow" they called it, and isn't that what Gardner-Webb is all about? A facility setting the stage for building a personal rainbow in areas of mind, body, and spirit. Building the rainbow of your life; its a lifelong construction project yielding colors that shine forever in the hearts of those touched by you. Each color of your rainbow symbolizes achievement in some area of life. Just as God has set a rainbow in the blue skies, you are to set a rainbow in all aspects of your life that it may live as an example of the gifts which you have been blessed.

The 1982 WEB is symbolic of the total academic period 1981-1982. It carries a graphic theme using logo lines throughout the book representative of the construction of one's total being. "Building a Rainbow" encompasses the lifelong personal goals one has set for his/her life. Each new color or facet is meaningful of advancement in recognizing the set objectives in such areas as fitting in socially and spiritually, attainment of self-esteem, and self-actualization.

The yearbook itself was printed and bound in Montgomery, Alabama, by Paragon Press, a division of Herff Jones Yearbooks. The cover and theme were inspired by the Fort Caswell Baptist Assembly Youth Week Theme, "Building a Rainbow." The cover design was contracted through Eve Communications of Charlotte, North Carolina by a professional artist. It is an original.

A personal note of gratitude I extend to the students, faculty, administration, staff, and patrons of Gardner-Webb College, and to the yearbook executive staff especially—my thanks to you for your unselfish efforts and accomplishments.

Once again, the opportunity to edit the yearbook of Gardner-Webb College has been an honor and rich experience, another plus for "Building a Rainbow."
